

CALL OUT FOR EVENT VOLUNTEERS

Daisy Farris Dance Collective are seeking enthusiastic individuals to volunteer as event ushers at an exciting dance performance. This event is the culmination of an exciting project and we are looking forward to recruiting enthusiastic volunteers to play a crucial role in the smooth running of the day.

The performance is part of The Princess Alice project. The project sees professional dancers working with a group of young people to tell the tragic story of The Princess Alice disaster through dance performance. Find out more about the project so far: www.dfdcollective.co.uk

Event Details:

The performances will take place on Thursday 13th April, 11:30am and 2pm, at the National Maritime Museum. Volunteers will need to arrive at 10:30am to be briefed by Daisy ahead of the first performance at 11:30am.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Volunteers will play an essential role in the smooth running of the performance event. Volunteer responsibilities will include:

- Being the first point of contact for the audience: answering any questions, guiding them to the performance space.
- Interacting with the audience: handing out and collecting audience feedback cards.
- Informing audiences about photography and filming taking place.
- Working with Daisy Farris and her team to ensure the smooth running of the overall event.

Volunteer Requirements:

- A valid DBS check.
- Confidence interacting with the public.
- An interest in the arts.
- Ability to be flexible and adapt to different situations.

Expenses:

Volunteers can claim expenses of up to £10 for food and travel, by providing valid receipts.

Benefits of Volunteering with Daisy Farris Dance Collective:

- Opportunity to work with a local emerging dance company.
- Meet and work with other local people on a high profile event.
- Potential future opportunities with Daisy Farris Dance Collective.
